Volunteer of the Year

Given annually, this award goes to a Chamber Volunteer who has made a significant contribution toward the success of the Chamber and its mission.

Chairman's Award

This award is given at the discretion of the outgoing Chair honoring a community leader who has made a significant impact on the Chamber in the past year.

Citizen of the Year

Given since 1959, this award is presented annually to the citizen who has consistently worked across organizations in our community to enhance our city. Recipients exhibit a "service above self" approach and have worked with the chamber, city, school, and civic organizations to improve our city.

Community Advocate of the Year

The community advocate of the year is awarded to organizations or individuals that go above and beyond their business' mission to serve the community at large. They empower their employees to serve and work to advocate for the community they love. Examples include volunteering at community events, serving on Community Boards, Supporting local non-profit organizations, and more.

Manufacturer of the Year

These businesses create wealth for the community and export their goods across the nation and abroad. Providing quality jobs and opportunities for the region, they are the backbone of the local economy and are engaged in the community.

Nonprofit of the Year

The non-profit of the year is an organization that provides services and programming to the Broken Arrow community that are extraordinary, serving people's needs and providing products and services not found in the for-profit realm.
