Chamber announces staffing updates

Broken Arrow, OK – April 25, 2024 – The Broken Arrow Chamber of Commerce has announced several organizational and staffing updates.

Lori Lewis has been promoted to serve as the Chamber’s new Vice President of Membership. Tiffany Shepard has been named the Chamber’s new Vice President of Events and Communication.

Lewis has served the Chamber for more than five years, most recently as the organization’s Senior Director of Membership and Community Development. She is a graduate of Southeastern Oklahoma State University with a bachelor’s degree in political science. She also has her master’s degree in American studies from Northeastern State University.

A lifelong resident of Broken Arrow, Lewis is also pursuing the IOM, or Institute for Organization Management, professional credential through the US Chamber.

“I’m excited to continue serving the businesses of Broken Arrow in this new role,” Lewis said. “I’m proud of all the work the Chamber has done and look forward to continued success.”

Shepard has been with the Chamber for more than two years, most recently serving as the Senior Director of Programs. She is a graduate of Oklahoma State University with a bachelor’s degree in hotel and restaurant administration.

She has successfully managed all aspects of the Chamber’s programming from Rooster Days to Monthly Luncheons and the Annual Gala.

“The team at the Chamber works tirelessly to create positive and productive experiences for membership,” Shepard said. “We will continue to provide unique and quality programs for our members and will tell our members’ stories in effective and forward-thinking ways.”

Chamber President and CEO Jennifer Conway said Shepard and Lewis displayed exemplary leadership serving the Chamber and its members.

“Every aspect they oversee is executed with excellence and I am confident that we will see the same success in the new roles of responsibility,” Conway said. “Broken Arrow Chamber of Commerce is blessed to have them on the team.”

Josh Driskell, who has served as the Chamber’s Vice President of Operations and Government Affairs, recently announced he has accepted a position as Vice President of Government Affairs with the Tulsa Regional Chamber. He praised the promotions of Lewis and Shepard.

“Lori and Tiffany are outstanding chamber of commerce professionals,” he said. “Their ability to serve the Chamber, its membership and the BA community are second-to-none. I look forward to their continued success.”

About Driskell, Conway praised his work with the chamber.

“Josh has made an incredible impact on the Broken Arrow Chamber of Commerce during his tenure,” she said. “In addition to the strong leadership and support he provide for the chamber team, he created a strong foundation in our advocacy programing through the creation of new programming such as the Broken Arrow Chamber Political Action Committee and the DC Fly-In. We are thankful we will continue to work alongside him through our partnership with the Tulsa Regional Chamber.”
